PARENT NIGHT WITH JESS WILSON

October 10, 2018

PARENTING FROM THE INSIDE OUT

Join the Boston Ability Center in Natick for lively conversation with Jess Wilson, author of the wildly popular blog and discussion forum, Diary of a Mom. Jess works closely with the autistic and disability community, advocating for access, dignity, and respect for all. In this moving, inspiring, and often humorous talk, she will share her perspective on parenting neurodiverse kids “from the inside out.” Find out how connecting with adults who share your child’s neurology will improve your life and theirs. Light refreshments will be served.
